

Is Religious Liberty In Danger Of Being Lost?

Jesus praying in the Garden of Gethsemane

LIBERTY

Liberty is the state of being free from oppressive restrictions or control imposed by authority on one's way of life, behaviour, or political views.

LIBERTY

- Deals with the state of being free to do something.
- Is a person's right to do whatever pleases him.
- Defined as the right and the power to believe and the expression of being free from restriction.
- Is the condition in which individuals behave according to their will. They then govern themselves, taking responsibility for their actions and behaviors.

FREEDOM

- Is the state of being free from something.
- Is someone's will that is not constrained by any external obligation or pressure.
- Is the state of being free to enjoy social, civil, and political, liberties. It is the power to decide a person's actions and the state of being free from confinement or restraints.

FREEDOM

- Is referred to as “free will.” The ability of an individual to make the choice that is free from coercion or restriction. An individual with free will or freedom is still bound to conform to religious and ethical doctrines as he is accountable for all his actions.
- Is enjoyed by all the individuals except those who are in prison. If someone is coerced into doing something because he has conflicting ideas about it, although it is what he desired to do, he is also said to have exercised his freedom.

Genesis Chapter
2 Verses 15-17
KJV

15 And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

Genesis Chapter 2:15-17

The Clear Word

15 God placed man in this special garden called the Garden of Eden to tend it and keep it beautiful.

16 He told man, “You may eat of every tree in the garden,

17 but there is one tree whose fruit you mustn't eat; this will test your love for me. You must choose between good and evil. If you decide to eat from this tree, you will have chosen evil and will have to die.”

LUKE CHAPTER 22:42

KJV -- Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but thine, be done.

The Clear Word -- Father, He said, if you see fit and are willing to release me from this part of my mission, please do so. Nevertheless, if that is not what you want, may your will for me be done.

JAMES CHAPTER 1:25 KJV

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

JAMES
CHAPTER
1:25
The Clear
Word

But if he carefully looks into the mirror of God's perfect law, he will see that it is a law of liberty, intended to set him free from sin. If he continues to do this and doesn't forget what it says, but puts it into practice, God will bless him in what he does.
