

“Christ’s Will, Your Service”

How can God use an Individual like me?

Who wants change?

A cartoon illustration of a speaker at a podium. The speaker is a balding man with a mustache, wearing a purple suit and tie, pointing his right index finger upwards. He is standing behind a blue podium with a white logo. A large speech bubble above him contains the text "Who wants to change?". In front of him is a large crowd of diverse people, mostly men in suits, looking towards him with various expressions of interest and skepticism. The background is a plain light blue sky with a single white bird flying in the distance.

Who wants to change?

Who wants to lead the change?

2 Cor 8:12

For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.
